

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—About 11 o'clock last night, blind Calvin Taylor, footsore and broken down, arrived at the Exchange Hotel in this place. He had been taken to Louisville several weeks ago charged with retailing liquor unlawfully. The Government took compassion on his unfortunate condition and turned him loose.

—It is reported that the sly archer, cupid, is directing arrows in direction of the heart of our old companion in arms, Maj. Geo. W. Drye, who used to gallantly lead charges in many a bloody contest in the unpleasantness some years ago. It is curious how one who could face powder and smoke so unflinchingly would surrender so easily to the adroit little imp.

—Deputy Jailer, W. W. Brown, has at last declared himself as a candidate for jailer at the November election. It was thought for awhile that the office would go begging, but every now and then a candidate is coming out. It is also reported that Jesse Dooley, of the Yosemite section, is a candidate for that office. Mr. John W. Wilkinson has lately come out on the democratic side. As for candidates for other offices they are too numerous to mention. Some of them will be certainly left in the future.

—We have recently received a copy or two of the Winfield (Kansas) Daily Courier, from which we make the following extract: The encampment at Newton acted on Capt. Fishback's resolution requesting the delegates to the National encampment to use their efforts to have the next National Encampment held at Louisville, Ky., his old home, by instructing the delegates to vote to put the encampment South of Mason and Dixon's line. The Captain made a strong plea for his old home. Captain J. Brent Fishback is well known in Central Kentucky, having once resided in Pulaski county. He was a gallant officer in Wolford's Cavalry, and has many friends among the survivors of that regiment. He resided some years in Louisville before emigrating to Kansas. His old comrades in arms will be much pleased to learn that he is using his influence to have the annual meeting of the G. A. R. in his native State.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Mat Pennington was in London last week.

—Miss Bingham music class will give a musical next Friday evening.

—The Corbin Enterprise will be published again, the next copy will be issued the 23rd.

—There will be a box supper at Watts creek school house for the benefit of the new Baptist church next Saturday night.

—The county is full of republican candidates for the county offices and among them are two colored men Henry W. Bond for County clerk and Clin Bradford for jailer.

—R. S. Crawford spent Saturday and Sunday in Pine Knot. C. W. Lester is in Wayne county attending court. J. N. Sharp has gone to Richmond on business this week.

—Last Friday evening the young ladies of the Academy gave a bean bag drill. They were well trained and drilled like soldiers. After the drill the young people had a social.

—There is a prospect for Williamsburg having electric lights soon; some of our energetic citizens are at work on the plan and we are very much in hopes they will be able to put it through.

—The Hexameter Society of the Institute gave a literary entertainment last Friday evening in the chapel at the Institute. A large crowd was out to hear the young people and were well repaid for the time spent in going.

—Mrs. J. L. Gentry is in Louisville this week. Judge Stinson is having a neat frame cottage erected on his lot. Mr. J. A. Cooley is building a new brick residence near the Academy. Mr. Chas. Ourd, who is learning the drug business with McRoberts, of Stanford, is at home on a visit.

—Two colored men were out fishing in a boat last week and carelessly got too near the mill dam and not knowing how to manage a boat very well went over. After considerable hard work they succeeded in getting out of the boat but it was a narrow escape.

—Miss Nell Freeman and Miss Curns Gatliff will leave in a few days for Ashville, N. C. to spend several weeks. Dr. W. Murphy has gone to Texas to select a home where he will move shortly on account of his wife's health. Andy Meadows went to Cincinnati Tuesday. Wm. Perkins went to Louisville Tuesday night to purchase a spring stock of goods for Mahan & Co.

—The manager of the Chicago Telephone Exchange has ordered that the girls in his employ shall wear skirts that will clear the floor by three inches.

—An attempt will be made in the House on Monday to pass the bill for the admission of New Mexico as a State. The republicans will compel the democrats to have a quorum present.

Be sure and examine the Cooley Creamer and buy no other.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. Jas. I. Hamilton takes charge of the postoffice to night, Thursday. He will retain Deputy Eph. Brown for awhile. The office will be kept where it is for the present.

—The fire Wednesday afternoon is another proof of the need of water works. It is nearly impossible to pull the chemical engine by hand to the suburbs of town, and when it is gotten there the firemen are so exhausted they can not do efficient work. Besides the old squirt gun is about worn out and very seldom works at all.

—The fire alarm again created an excitement on Wednesday afternoon. The roof of Mrs. Clay Kauffman's residence on Danville Ave. caught from sparks from the kitchen flue and before the flames could be extinguished, a large hole was burned in the roof. The damage will be small and is fully covered by insurance.

—COURT NOTES.—George Huffman, the white boy charged with outraging his 6 year-old niece, was given 8 years in the penitentiary. Simeon Engleman, colored, confessed to breaking into a store and was sent up for three years. The case against Eb Doty for killing Charley White, was continued until August court. Teddy Pascoe was fined $10 in two cases for selling "green frog" smoking tobacco and cigarette paper to a person under 16 years of age. Henry Reddick, colored, was fined $50 for malicious cutting. He is the one that cut another negro back of the Mason Hotel last fall. Dwight Mitchell, unlawful shooting, forfeited bond. John Smith, selling whisky, $25. O. P. Tudor, for furnishing liquor to minor, $50. A large number of cases for smaller offenses have been disposed of and the docket will be pretty well cleaned up at this term. Mr. Baylor Jennings is foreman of the grand jury.

—Circuit court is progressing finely. Judge Sanfley is dispatching business rapidly and in a manner that gives general satisfaction. His charge to the grand jury was lucid and forcible; his remarks in regard to the enforcement of the laws for the protection of game receiving marked attention. He gave many excellent reasons why these laws should be enforced and the original manner in which he treated the subject will awaken an interest in the minds of the people that will doubtless result in great good. The fish and birds must be protected from the depredations of seines, dynamite and pot hunters. John Sam Owsley, Jr., the able and popular young Commonwealth's attorney, is discharging his duties in a manner highly creditable to himself and he has won the admiration and esteem of the people generally.

CRAB ORCHARD.

(DELAID LETTER.)

—Rev. Ben Helm, of Stanford, has been working hard in our midst and several have united with the Christian and Baptist churches. We appreciate his efforts in behalf of our people. He has anointed several and Mr. Donegan who was lying at death's door was healed and is now out of a sick bed testifying to God's goodness, and power to raise those who trust him. He desires to thank the good people of town for their kindness to him while on a sick bed.

—Saturday's victory over the flesh and the devil, has filled our people with joy and many prayers of thankfulness have ascended the great white throne for our deliverance. To Mrs. D. G. Slaughter is due the praise of all our people for stirring them up to this movement. She has "braved the lion in his den" and worked unflinchingly, and accepted meekly, all the harsh things said of her for the accomplishment of her design and deserves more than a small space here allows me to say of her. Our people desire to thank Rev. Helm, Lucien Lasley, Dr. Doores and others for their great work in our behalf. Mr. Lasley has been a steady worker wherever duty called him. To the young men of town is due great praise and we would like to have space to mention everyone by name but we must Sam Magee who did not even take time to eat his dinner. Will Hansford, Dr. Willie Edmiston and Joe Magee also worked steadily and faithfully.

T. A. BRADLEY, of Danville, desires everyone to call at Farris & Hardin's grocery and examine the Cooley Creamer. Everyone guaranteed.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have ever used this great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed. Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Mrs. Lucinda Lanham, wife of Elijah Lanham, died on the 2nd inst. of consumption.

—Mr. Elisha Gifford, who lost his house by fire, had failed to renew his insurance, which expired but a few days before.

—W. G. Miller will move to his new residence this week. Mr. George Sluder, who moved to Indiana some two years ago, has returned.

—The editor got his "death's doings" and "matrimonial matters" somewhat mixed in Tuesday's issue, though as his paper is always so nearly correct, this little matter should not be charged up to him as a crime.

—Misses Mattie Elliott and Mayne Farris, of Somerset, are visiting Miss Carrie Cloyd. Mr. E. P. Woods, of Lincoln, came down last week to see his uncle E. S. Fisher. V. R. Coleman is furnishing news items from this place to the Mountain Echo. Nelson Wilcher made a flying visit to Lexington last week. Robt. Hall returned Saturday from a visit to his parents in Pulaski county.

—Mr. H. D. Gifford, our efficient county surveyor, sold his property at public auction Thursday, and will start at once to Texas. Mr. Gifford is one of our best citizens, and will be sadly missed especially by the Christian church, of which he was a most zealous member and one of the best informed members of that congregation. The community regrets very much to give him up.

—It was reported here some days ago and we have not heard it contradicted, that J. F. Allstott, of Big South Rolling Fork, had announced himself a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the republican primary Aug. 4th. We are not personally acquainted with Allstott, but he is said to be a monstrous clever man, besides having plenty of money. So he may be in it when the "tug of war" comes, though we are betting two to one on Dr. J. C. Dye.

—Supt. J. W. Hoskins was with us lately condemning old dilapidated school houses and ordering new ones built. Mr. Hoskins is well posted as to his duty, and never fails to do it. He has caused a number of new houses to be built since assuming the duties of his office, and there are several now being erected. Surely no officer in the county deserves more praise than Hoskins, who, on retiring from office will carry with him the respect of everybody, especially that of the teachers who have worked under him during his administration of the educational affairs of the county.

All signs, except Prevaricator Foster's forecasts, point to an early spring. The straits between the great northern lakes have opened to navigation earlier this year than any of the past eleven years; and the oldest inhabitant can not recall a milder-mannered March than this one has so far proven, despite the prophecy that it would be worse than any of its predecessors. As God tempered the winter winds to the unsheltered sheep, so the new born lambs may confidently count upon a continuation of the same providential kindness until they are ready for market. But if a wicked and perverse generation would have still another sign of the stability of this somewhat too previous ethereal mildness, we can point with confidence to the fact that old Farmer Simon Bolivar Buckner has already pitched his field and garden crops, though he thinks it too soon to sow senatorial aspirations.—Louisville Times.

QUEEN AND CRESCENT ROUTE.—"Glimpses of the World's Fair." A selection of 192 Gems of the White City seen through the Camera. This handsome volume containing 192 photographic half-tone views of the entire Exposition, showing all main buildings, all state and territorial buildings, all foreign buildings, grounds, statuary, lagoons, and about 40 views of the great Midway Plaisance, will be sent to any address on receipt of 25 cents and five cents for postage. This book has been issued by the greatest of Southern railroads—the Queen & Crescent Route—and its excellence is without a flaw. A most delightful collection of exquisite views, in a small and convenient-sized book. Many such collections are large and cumbersome. Send your address and 30 cents to W. O. Rinearson, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Syrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing, and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and I was free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—At a wooden wedding celebration in Brooklyn there were 24 guests, and 17 of them brought presents of clothes pins to the happy couple.

—There are deep, dark hints that a young Stanford lawyer is to become a Benedict before the May flowers bloom, but he denies of it.

—A Hardin county farmer says that the devil owed him a debt and is paying him in son-in-laws. His sixth daughter was married Thursday and he has five more left.

—The engagement of Minister Thurston, Hawaiian representative at Washington, and Miss Harriet Potter is announced. She was cashier at the Hawaiian exhibit at the mid winter fair.

—Mr. Ansel Baugh entered into his third matrimonial alliance this week. Mrs. Nannie Farmer, a comely widow of 31, being the fortunate lady. The groom is bearing down on three score and ten.

—Fred Gebhardt, the wealthy New Yorker, and Miss Louise Morris were married in Baltimore Wednesday. Fred used to rush Lily Langtry, the faded Jersey beauty, but he stopped that long ago.

—In Manitoba there are 16,178 bachelors who have sent word that they regard celibacy as a failure, and that 16,178 homes and hearts are ready for a corresponding number of women ungallantly deemed "superfluous" in this country. Now is a chance for the old maids.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Elder W. L. Williams will preach at the Christian church Sunday on "Prohibition from a Scriptural Standpoint."

—Sam Small has scooped in 50 Hopkinsville sinners thus far and will continue his meeting until Sunday.

—In Covington, Rev. Dr. Blackburn has had, during his four years as pastor of First Presbyterian church, 320 new members.

—A telegram from Bishop T. U. Dudley stated that it was impossible for him to fill his appointment at the college chapel last night.

—There will be 19 full graduates in the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville and they were entertained Tuesday night by Dr. Broadbush.

—Rev. W. T. Poynter, of Shelbyville, has sent out a circular letter to ministers of his denomination, Methodist, South, asking their opinion on the question of organic union with the Methodist church and on the removal of the time limit from the pastorate.

—Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard is planning the erection of a church near her country home on the Hudson as a memorial of her husband. It is to be beautiful in architecture and will be the most costly church edifice ever erected by one individual in the United States.

—W. W. Wallace has sold his farm of 120 acres, near Danville, on the Shaker-town pike to Jno. Hugely, at $100, or $12,000. Mr. Wallace gave $80 per acre for the place, but since purchasing it has put upwards of $3,400 in improvements upon it.

—The Methodist are making extensive preparations for the series of special services to begin at the Methodist church Sunday. Rev. Vaught, of Harrodsburg, and Prof. Fogg, the lay evangelist, who will have charge of the choir, have been very successful in conducting such meetings.

—Peter T. Gentry, one of the oldest residents and largest land owners in the county, died Monday night of old age in his 75 year. He was a native of Madison county. P. T. Gentry, Jr., F. M. Gentry, of New Orleans; B. F. Gentry, of Lexington; Richard, William C. and Thomas B. Miss Julia K. Gentry and Mrs. A. I. Caldwell, of Danville, are his children, who survive him.

—In a sermon the other day, Bishop Dudley, of the Episcopal church, said: Life, eternal life, is only obtained by union with Christ. Therein our religion differs from all others. We saw that the first step was belief, faith; believe the Gospel that God loves men, and sent His son to show His love. The next step is baptism. I will not spend a moment in discussing modes of baptism. I had as soon baptize a man in an ocean as in a teaspoonful of water. But I want to say first of all that baptism is necessary to unite us with Christ. Remember, regeneration is one thing; conversion is another. I have been converted many times; whenever I go wrong and turn back I am converted. One word more, we are baptized into membership—fellowship, communion, but bear in mind that back of all is faith and repentance. What is repentance? Forsaking sin. I beseech you in Jesus' name as you believe, be baptized into His union; enter the atmosphere of life, so that when the end comes on earth you shall enter eternal life."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

W. P. WALTON.

6 OR 8 PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

THERE was a scene not down on the bills, as the theatrical people say, in the Pollard-Breckinridge case, Tuesday. Johnson, the big, brawny lawyer for the plaintiff, had scored a certain Kentucky lawyer in the case, charging him with chicanery, and other such awful things. Col. Shelby, Breckinridge's law partner, thinking that the remarks were intended for him endeavored to reply to them, but the judge declined to hear him and adjourned court. This added injury to insult and the Kentucky blood in the little bantam's veins boiled over and stationing himself where Johnson was sure to pass in leaving the court-room, Shelby accosted him with: "You have insulted me, sir!" "Well" was Johnson's reply in a peculiarly aggravating tone, whereupon the 115 pounder jumped up and planted his little fist in the big man's face, as he tried to get away. Col. Breckinridge and Calderon Carlisle, one of Miss Pollard's counsel, rushed forward to stop the row, when Desha Breckinridge, the fiery son of the defendant, thinking that an assault was being made on his father, dealt Carlisle a blow. The bailiffs ran forward and soon smoothed out war's wrinkled front. There were speculations on the probability of the men being sent to jail for contempt, but Judge Bradley said that the fracas having occurred after the adjournment of his court he could take no cognizance of it, though he embraced the opportunity to deliver a mild lecture to the belligerents and to request them to say whether they had guns on their person or not. Col. Shelby said he never carried one in his life and all the other of the defendant's lawyers asserted that they were unarmed till Phil Thompson, said "as I am the only one left I enter a disclaimer also," but we suspect the statement had a string tied to it. There has been no new developments in the case and it was thought that all the evidence for the plaintiff would have been given by noon yesterday, when, as the Louisville Times expresses it, Col. Breckinridge was to be placed upon the stand to swear out of the lies he told Madge Pollard when he repeatedly swore to marry her, though he was already wedded to another and preparing to wed that other some more. About half of the Congressmen have applied for admission to hear him testify and the public business will be brought to a stand still. Miss Pollard seems to have made out her case, but no matter what is the outcome, the defendant is dead politically and damned in every way forever.

THE agony is over and Col. George Matthew Adams will be pension agent for Kentucky. If he fill the office as well as our kinsman, Dr. Walton, then he and his friends will have cause for congratulation and "Old Matt" will have scored another triumph for faithfulness to a public trust. He has held a great many offices in his time of 57 years. Four terms in Congress, one as clerk of the body, four years as secretary of the State of Kentucky, and goodness knows how many more, ought it seems to have satisfied the political ambition of an ordinary man, but once in office always in office is the motto of those who aspire to such flesh pots, and the colonel is no exception to the rule. The Barbourville man was born under a lucky star and with a gold spoon in his mouth.

MISS POLLARD understands the value of stage effects. While a witness was telling about seeing one of her children's body at the undertakers, she apparently grew so full of emotion that unable to contain herself longer, she burst forth in sobs and had to be taken from the court-room. As she passed the jury box she fell in a faint and like to have landed in the arms of one of the jurors. The effect on the jury seems to have been what was intended and the fair plaintiff scored a point. Her preparation for the stage goes bravely on.

ONE of the sins of commission of the late Legislature is the passage of the husband and wife bill, increasing the property rights of the latter and removing the disabilities of coverture. It may work all right but we fear it will be a never ending cause of strife between men and their wives who have any property to quarrel over.

BUD FARRIS stole Lawrence Parsons' bicycle at Louisville and got six years in the penitentiary at the hands of a jury. A drunken councilman killed a man and is now out on bail pending an application for a new trial, in the same city, after being let off with one year in jail and a fine of $1,000. Truly there is something very rotten in the laws of Denmark.

THE Louisville Times speaks of the Interior Journal as the organ of the "drys," but the "drys" don't seem to think so. The fact is, this paper is the organ of nothing but pure and undefiled religion and its synonym, democracy.

WHEN the members of the long drawn out Legislature came marching home, after a session prolonged to 500 days or more, the verdict of an outraged constituency rung in their ears, "Depart, ye workers of iniquity. We never knew you." But few had the temerity to ask to be returned to Frankfort and fewer still were chosen to do so. A better set of men were elected and they have just completed their work in the constitutional limit of 60 days, and gone to their homes to receive the well deserved plaudit, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." As has been stated, it was a Legislature without a faction and without a lobby, and its whole course has been conducted to the elevation in the public mind of such bodies, which for years has been below par. Of course the body did some things that it ought not to have done and left undone some things that it ought to have done, but their constituents will forgive both their sins of omission and commission, proud to have had one decent Legislature in a lifetime. Good boys. Come home and strike us for something better.

A SCORE or less of impracticable malcontents met at Pittsburgh, Pa., Wednesday and launched a new political party upon an inoffending public, under the high sounding name of the Progressive People's party. It is to be hoped, however that this is the last we shall hear of it.

THE Legislature paid the preachers who prayed for it $350, which is a pretty steep sum, but if it was through the efficacy of their petitions that the body was kept from grievous sins, the money was well spent.

—A Lewis county nurseryman has a twenty acre crab apple orchard from which he made and sold 280 barrels of cider last year. It is not stated how many headaches he is responsible for.

—Ex-Senator John J. Ingalls of Kansas emphatically denies the published report that he contemplates entering the ministry.

ADDITIONAL CITY AND VICINITY.

HANDSOME line of queensware at Farris & Hardin's.

MR. E. G. WALLER has sold to John A. Chappell his house and lot on East Main Street for $700.

THE craps cases were not reached yesterday. The penalty for playing the game is $50 to $100 fine.

GRANT TRICE and Annie Givens were lodged in jail Wednesday charged with breaking into the store of Jim Jones at McKinney. All are negroes.

WE have just received one more lot those fine sample shoes, worth $3.50 per pair, to be sold at the same price, $1.98 This is positively your last chance for such bargains. B. F. Jones & Son.

FINED.—Craig Camden, for a misdemeanor, was fined $14 and sent to jail in default of payment. John Keifer, on a similar charge, paid the $5 assessed against him and went his way rejoicing.

ATTENTION is called to the spring advertisement of H. F. Hillenmeyer, the well-known nurseryman of Lexington. He is thoroughly reliable, as his many patrons in this section of country will bear testimony.

COME see our overcoats, reduced to $8.50; our men's gossamer shoes at $1.50; our full stock brogan $1; our new stock of boys' shirt waists; our new line of spring wraps; our J. B. and P. D. corsets. Hughes & Tate.

MR. C. S. BAKER, agent for the American Book Co., tells us that he has supplied 18 counties with the maps, charts, &c., for school purposes, as now provided by law, at an average of $1,000. To equip the Lincoln county school houses $1,500 were required.

THE prettiest as well as one of the most convenient cottages in town is the one that Mr. A. R. Penny has about completed on the lot in front of his residence and which will be occupied by Dr. W. B. Penny. It is a very decided improvement to Lancaster Street.

THE nicest and largest cake of butter ever sent to this office has been received from Mrs. J. E. Carson, whose husband's herd of Jersey cows has an inter-State reputation. It is beautiful in color and superior in flavor. Our thanks are very cordially extended for the remembrance.

ALL INVITED TO COME HEAR.—I will deliver an address on Local Option at the court-house on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Gentlemen and ladies, cranks and lawyers, doctors, farmers, merchants, mechanics, officials, all classes, black and white, are respectfully invited. Jos. Ballou.

LAND SALES.—MR. THOMAS S. PARSONS has sold to J. L. Randall, of Laurel, his farm of 28 acres situated on the Crab Orchard pike, three miles from town and known as the "House that Jack Built," for $1,200. Mr. Parsons bought of Col. W. H. Dudderar his house and lot in Rowland for $800.

FLOWERS.—Mrs. Steele Bailey has made an arrangement with a leading florist to fill orders for cut flowers at reduced rates. Between the first and the 15th of April she will bring on some rich and rare flowers and sell them cheaper than they can be bought anywhere by those who do not buy by wholesale.

THE number of prisoners in the jail here was increased to 22 Wednesday, 8 craps shooters, of the colored persuasion, and 4 others being incarcerated on that day. Constable Thomas Jefferson Benedict arrested the 8 craps shooters near the Dix River bridge and drove them to town like hogs, without assistance.

THE long spell of beautiful weather was temporarily ended yesterday in rain, but the signal service promises fair and cooler weather to day. March rarely ever gave us such nice weather before. There has been scarcely any wind and the days have been frequently as fine as they are in May. A great deal of gardening has been done.

THERE was another meeting of the faithful at the court-house Wednesday. A Winchester orator was down as the drawing card, but he failed to materialize and the local talent gladly accepted the chance to shoot at the rum sellers with their mouths. It is wonderful how the interest in such addresses never seems to lag. The same crowd will listen to the same old song and dance seven days in the week and then cry because the weeks are no longer. May they not permit their zeal to cool, but continue their warfare on the nefarious traffic ever after prohibition has been voted at the polls.

QUITE a large number of Hustonvillians were here yesterday to resist the granting of liquor license to W. S. Drye, successor to Weatherford & Brown. They presented a petition to the judge signed by 60 voters, but afterwards agreed that five should be stricken from it. According to them there are 101 voters in town and according to Drye there are 109. Col. Welch represented the applicant and Messrs. J. B. Paxton and P. M. McRoberts the protestants, and after a weary and tedious examination into whether certain persons were entitled to vote in town, it was found at 4 o'clock that the protestants had by one vote and the license was refused.

FOR RENT.—House that I lived in, adjoining Mrs. Fannie Green's. Mrs. Mary Engleman, Hubble.

R. LEE METCALF the fakir and would be actor, still languishes in the Lexington jail unable to give $500 bail for obtaining money under false pretenses.

THE evening of March 23rd has been fixed for the operatic performance for the benefit of Christian College, Hustonville. It will be given in the Christian church there.

—The post-office at Maileom, Clay county, Ky., will be discontinued after March 31.

—The industrial situation in the Pittsburgh district is improving steadily. About 75 per cent. of the operatives are at work in the Pittsburgh mills, and comparatively few of the unemployed are dependent upon charity.

Your Summer's Vacation

Will be well spent if you visit some of the delightful resorts in the northwest located along the Wisconsin Central Lines, which are unsurpassed both for their scenic beauty and health-giving qualities. Convenient trains, good hotel accommodations and reasonable rates have made them popular. For full particulars, hotel rates, maps, time tables and guide books apply to Jas. C. Pond, Gen'l. Pass. Agt., Milwaukee, Wis.

Cain's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller leads all other preparations in this market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs and croup. A. W. Baldridge, Millersville, Ill. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocke, druggist.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE OF

A Stock of Merchandise

At Kingsville, Kentucky.

As assignee of Glass & Johnson, I will, until further notice, sell

AT COST FOR CASH!

The stock of merchandise at Kingsville which Glass & Johnson assigned to me for the benefit of their creditors. The stock consists of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Notions, Groceries, &c. This is a fine chance for bargains. Any person desiring to buy the stock as a whole will do well to call on me for terms. All persons indebted to the firm must come up and settle with me. EDWARD ALCORN, Trustee.

GILT : EDGE : 261.

REGISTERED.

BY SECOND JEWEL 48.

Dam by old Stonewall Jackson. This fancy saddle stallion will make the season of 1894 at our stable 1/4 mile from Milledgeville, Lincoln county, Ky., on the Stanford and Milledgeville pike. Owing to the scarcity of money, we will stand him.

At $10 to Insure a Living Colt.

Money due when the colt comes or mare parted with. Mares grazed or fed at reasonable prices. Not responsible for accidents should any occur. Gilt Edge is a beautiful red sorrel, flax mane and tail, 14 hands 3 inches high; was foaled Sept. 6, 1890 and is a perfect saddle horse.

Gilt Edge was shown as a 3-year-old and took the sweepstake premium at Kirksville and Danville and in his own right at Harrodsburg. Those who want to breed to a good saddle stallion are cordially invited to look at our horse and see him move.

He was sired by Second Jewel, he by Cunningham's Jewel, he by old Washington Denmark. His dam Mammie by McMichael's Halcors. Second dam by Wells' Crusader, his 1st dam by Stonewall Jackson, he by Washington Denmark, he by Black Denmark, his 1st dam by Crusader he by Old Whip, 2d dam a Rocky Mountain mare.

MADISON SANDIDGE & SON, Milledgeville, Ky.

EAGLE : BIRD.

Winner of the $500 Stake at Lexington. Winner of Sweepstake Premium at Lexington. Winner of Aged Premium and Sweepstakes at Paris.

Won Second Money in $500 Stakes at Versailles. Won Third Money in $400 Stakes at Nicholasville. Won Fourth Money in $300 Stakes at Stanford. Won the $200 Consolation Purse at Danville.

Eagle Bird is a beautiful brown with small star, stands over 16 hands high, has flowing mane and heavy tail.

Eagle Bird was sired by the great King Eagle, winner of more than 40 Blue Ties.

First dam by Star Eagle, son of Cabbell's Lexington; 2nd dam by Hamlet Denmark, son of Washington Denmark; 3rd dam by Harris' Denmark, son of Miller's Denmark.

Eagle Bird will stand the season of 1894, at my farm two miles West of Stanford, on the Shelby City pike.

At $20 to Insure a Living Colt.

Money or cash note will be required when the fact is ascertained.

Eagle Bird is one of the grandest show horses in Kentucky. Monte Cristo, his uncle, is the only horse shown in the Blue Grass Circuit that he did not defeat. He could be relied upon to make a gallant show whenever called upon and always finished as game as a race horse, although some of the "knowing ones" pronounced him no good. As a breeder of fine, high-styled, good colored colts, he is not surpassed by any horse in Kentucky.

Mares from a distance will be furnished grass after May 1st at $1.50 per month, and must be paid at the removal of mares. Care taken to prevent accidents and escapes, but not responsible should any occur.

Parting with or removal of mares forfeits the insurance.

Will also stand a fine mule Jack at $7 to insure a living colt.

E. P. WOODS, Stanford, Ky.

Dress Goods.

Of course every one must have a wool dress, and they are surprisingly cheap now. We are showing fifteen styles of all wool novelty mixtures, 36 inches wide, at 39c. Ten styles handsome, pure silk and wool novelties, 40 inches wide, at 50c. Then we have Serges, Henriettas, and other staple Dress Goods weaves in all qualities. Novelties in silk and wool mixtures, Crepons, Checks, Brocades and Grenadines from 75c to $4.50 per yard. Indications are that mixtures will have a decided run in preference to solid colors.

Black Goods.

We are showing some beautiful new styles of Crepons, plain and embroidered, suitable for mourning. Also quantities of staple black goods and a great many new gray and black and white goods.

Silks.

Will undoubtedly be more used than for years past. You will see many decided changes from last season's styles. For dressy dresses the much used Chinas have given place to Taffetas of years ago. These come in dainty patterns and exquisite colors. We have bought largely of these, as we have great confidence in their sale. China silks will be extensively worn for comfortable and always neat appearing street dresses. We have these in great variety and have many specially good values to offer at 25c, 40c, 50c and 69c per yard. Some of these are just one-half last year's prices. We have some choice patterns black Grenadines at 85c and $1. New brocaded and Satin Stripe Satins and Taffetas for dresses. New black Satins, Armure, Moires, Chinas, &c. A great lot of wash silks and other silks suitable for shirt-waists and for children's wear.

Dress Trimmings.

All the newest ideas. Point Venise Laces and bands—a show case full—from 40c to $2.50 yard. Jet Bands, Jet Ruffles, Jet Edges and all over Jet. Black Laces and Bands. Black and colored Moire Silks, Satins, &c.

Wash Goods

In bewildering variety. Gingham by the case at 10c, 12½c and 20c, fully 50 per cent. better value than last year. Penangs at 10c and 11½c. Outing Cloths 8½c and 12½c. Printed Dimities at 12½c, 15c and 30c. Dainty French organdies in 25 styles. Galatea Cloths in twelve styles. Irish Lawns 10c. Printed P. K. Welts at 15c, worth 25c. Fifteen styles Swivel Silks at 50c yard.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Miss NAN BAUGHMAN went to Danville, Tuesday.

Mr. A. M. BUSTARD, of Philadelphia, is in town.

Miss ANNE SHANKS returned from Louisville yesterday.

Miss ELLA MAY SAUNDERS went to Louisville, Wednesday.

Mr. JESSE M. ALVERSON, a Richmond, typist, has taken cases on this paper.

Mrs. DICKINSON, of Glasgow, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Ellis.

Dr. A. S. PRICE, who has been sick for a week, is now confined to his bed.

Prof. JASON B. CHENNAULT is recovering from a dangerous and protracted illness.

Mrs. J. S. KINDRICK, of Somerset, is attending the bedside of Miss Annie Alcorn.

Mrs. BELLE HARP, of Lexington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones.

Miss EDDIE ADAMS, of Danville, has been visiting Miss Annie Hale and other friends.

Miss FLORA SHANKS, of Rowland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Katie Wells, at Junction City.

Capt. JOHN HARRIS, of the C. V. Branch, was down this week to see a mighty pretty girl.

Several couples from here will attend the Schubert concert at the Danville Opera House to-night.

Gov. McCREARY has returned to Washington greatly pleased with his prospects for U. S. Senator.

Miss LOTTIE DILLION, a bewitching brunette from Crab Orchard, has been visiting Miss Mary Dudderar.

Mrs. AMERICA ROUT, Mrs. Will Cordier and Mrs. Charley Hewitt are visiting Mrs. Louis Huesung in Somerset.

Mr. A. T. NUNNELLEY, as fat and as jolly as ever, is off of the road for a few days and spending them with his mother here.

Miss FLORE COURT is back from an extended stay in Cincinnati, where she bought an endless variety of spring millinery.

Mrs. CLEO W. J. BROWN, of Mt. Vernon, was on yesterday's train en route to Louisville and Indianapolis to buy spring millinery.

Miss CETTIE THURMOND, who has been to see her sister, Mrs. J. S. May, at Somerset, returned yesterday and reports her much better.

Mr. A. H. CUNNINGHAM, the cleverest drummer on the road, was here this week in the interest of the Chatfield & Woods paper house.

Mr. MAX SALINGER, of Louisville, was up this week encouraging the boys in his store, who are always kept hustling to wait on the trade.

Miss MOLLIE BROOKS, who has been on a visit to her brother, J. W. Brooks, at St. Louis, since before Christmas, returned yesterday to Crab Orchard.

The Louisville Times pays Hon. Harvey Helm a high compliment and says he will be a candidate for re-election. Mr. Helm's constituents are proud of the record he has made at Frankfort.

A young lady left Tuesday to go to the city to purchase her trousseau; at least that is what she told us. Her name is in this column. Find it and send $2 to this office for your subscription.

We are glad to note considerable improvement in the condition of Miss Annie Alcorn. She showed some signs of returning appetite yesterday and her general appearance inspired increased hope of her early recovery.

ARE THERE COL. JIM.—The result of the local option election in Crab Orchard, was heard of with disgust by one distinguished ex-citizen of the Salts City. He remarked that the town was just being ruined by peace-meal.—Advocate.

THAT sterling dry goods firm, A. B. Robertson & Bro., of Danville, comes to see our readers again and invites them to make them a call this spring. Read their invitation on this page.

AFTER the prohibition excitement is over and those who have any shall have returned to their senses, we want to inaugurate a crusade against an evil almost as great as that of rum selling and drinking. We refer to the sin of failure to pay honest debts and a disregard of the Scriptural injunction to "owe no man anything." It is the great and growing curse of the land. A man who can pay his debts and wont do it is no better than a thief and the penitentiary is his proper place. Our rule of faith and practice is to inquire, "Is he honest, does he pay his honest debts?" If he pass this examination properly we have more respect for him than for half a dozen sniveling so-called Christians, who wear the livery of Heaven, the better to take in their fellow man and get his goods for nothing. How many of those who preach prohibition practice it, and how many who wear a holier than thou expression on their countenance can plead not guilty to the charge that he is a thief at heart?

It will be of interest to both sides to know when the various liquor licenses expire. Those of P. W. Green at Stanford and McKinney expired this week as did Mr. Joe Coffey's. Those of Mrs. Martha L. Harris, Crab Orchard, Weatherford & Brown, Hustonville, and D. A. Twaddle and T. L. Shelton, Rowland, are out April 10th. Jonathan Russell, Hustonville, April 14th, Carpenter & Dalton, Stanford, May 8th, Mrs. Mary C. Vanlerpool, Crab Orchard, May 18th and Mrs. Bettie C. Pennybacker, Kingsville, Nov. 27th. Should local option carry Mrs. Pennybacker will have to increase the number of her bar keepers for Kingsville will be the Mecca of those who like to look upon the wine while it is red.

THE NEW RAILROAD.—Mr. A. R. Penny went to Cincinnati this week to see Mr. H. D. Emerson, of the Green River railroad, with reference to extending it from Kingsville here. He was shown the profile of it made by Mr. Emerson's corps of engineers and the route seems a very practical one and easy of construction. The proposition is that Stanford and other people interested raise $10,000, stock to be given on all subscriptions of over $100; under that amount to be donations, the money not to be due and payable till the road is built. Nothing could be fairer than this, and considering the advantages that would accrue to Stanford and the county generally, we are sure the amount can be easily raised. In addition to getting the road, Mr. Emerson promises the location here of at least three manufacturing plants, which will give employment to 300 men or more, provided the town will give the usual exemption of taxes and donate sites. The chances for the road seem to be very favorable, and when Mr. Emerson returns from St. Louis and submits a proposition in writing, as he promises to do, subscription papers will be started at once to raise the necessary $10,000.

THE City Council very arbitrarily refused to grant P. W. Green a continuance of license and his saloon and that of Joseph Coffey, whose license expired at the same time, has been closed. If this shut off the whisky business entirely in Stanford, there might be more excuse for acting so precipitately on a question before the people have been given a chance to pass on it. Col. Welch appeared before the board in behalf of Mr. Green and insisted that as it had not been elected on the issue of local option, that it was nothing but right and justice that the present order of things remain as it is until the people could express themselves on the subject. He showed that $1,000 for licenses having been counted in making up the estimates for the year, there would be a deficit to that amount and consequently no street improvements of any kind could be made for a year at least, and then the constitutional limit of 75 cents on the $100 would be insufficient to pay the expenses of the town. He asked that the board take a liberal, common sense view of the matter and not be governed in their action by cranky ideas or by the orders of pet preachers, but vote in the interest of all the people. This brought Councilman J. K. Vanarsdale to his feet and he informed the Council that he was there to represent himself and not to be dictated to. Col. Welch was glad to obtain such an admission and said so in such an aggravating way, that the doctor's wrath was further kindled. Mayor Hocker requested him to set down till Col. Welch was through, but the doctor refused to do so even after a preemptory order was made. The Mayor thereupon directed a fine of $2 to be entered against him, and the doctor took his seat. The Council's speech failed of the desired effect upon the Council, which immediately took a vote and decided as above stated.

NOTHING AND SOMETHING.

BY MRS. FRANCIS E. W. HARPER.

[Published at the request of the young lady temperance workers.]

"It is nothing to me," the beauty said, With a careless toss of her pretty head; "The man is weak, if he can't refrain, From the cup you say is fraught with pain."

It was something to her in after years When her eyes were drenched with burning tears And she watched in lonely grief and dread, And started to hear a staggering tread.

"It is nothing to me," the mother said; "I have no fear that my boy will tread The downward path of sin and shame, And crush my heart and darken his name."

It was something to her when that only son From the path of right was early won, And madly cast in the flowing bowl A ruined body and sin-wrecked soul.

"It is nothing to me," the merchant said, As over his ledger he bent his head; "I'm busy to day with tare and tret, And have no time to fume and fret."

It is something to him when over the wire A message came from a funeral pyre— A drunken conductor had wrecked a train, And his wife and child were among the slain.

"It is nothing to me," the young man cried; "In his eye was a flash of scorn and pride, 'I heed not the dreadful things ye tell, I can rule myself, I know full well.'"

It was something to him when in prison he lay, The victim of drink; life ebbing away, As he thought of his wretched child and wife, And the mournful wreck of his wasted life.

"It is nothing to me," the voter said; "The party's loss is my greatest dread"— Then gave his vote for the liquor trade, Though hearts were crushed and drunkards were made.

It was something to him in after life, When his daughter became a drunkard's wife, And her hungry children cried for bread, And trembled to hear their father's tread.

Is it nothing to us to idly sleep While the cohorts of Death their vigils keep, To gather the young and thoughtless in— And grind in our midst a grist of sin?

It is something—yes, all, for us to stand, And clasp by faith our Savior's hand— To learn to labor, live and fight, On the side of God and changeless Right!

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—The House voted $50 apiece to the ministers who had prayed for it in the opening exercises.

—Of the 600 bills and resolutions presented in the General Assembly, less than 150 were adopted and of these the governor has approved 69.

—A vote of 48 to 15 passed the bill to prevent a violation of local option laws by carriers and agents delivering jugs of liquor along railway and steamboat routes.

—A sermon will be preached in Gaelic at the mass in the St. Thomas church, in Chicago on St. Patrick's day. This will be the first Gaelic sermon ever presented in the West.

—After an attempt to prevent the reading of the enrolled husband and wife bill in the General Assembly opposition was finally withdrawn, and the measure was read and sent to the Gov. ernor.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Hon. James H. Mulligan of Lexington, has been appointed Consul general at Samoa.

—R. E. J. Miles, the distinguished theatrical manager, died at his home near Cincinnati.

—Scattered township elections in New Jersey gave Republicans something fresh to brag about.

—The University of Louisville turned out 209 sawbones Tuesday to prey upon the human body.

—Marshall Taylor of Marion, shot his sister, Miss Emma Taylor, while under the influence of liquor.

—Malvin C. Thompson has been appointed postmaster at Lebanon and J. W. Moore at Henderson.

—John T. Ford, at whose theatre President Lincoln was shot, died at Baltimore, Wednesday, aged 65.

—A committee of the New York Senate has favorably reported a bill defining hazing as a criminal offense.

—The lost schooner Mary Brown has been found on the rocks of Banks Island, with the entire crew missing.

—Melvin Grubb, aged 15 years, of Wythe county, Va., is said by the Richmond Times to weigh 535 pounds.

—Hon. W. C. Owens opened his campaign for Congress in Lexington Monday and had a flattering reception.

—The Middlesboro Town Company bought the Middlesboro hotel at $8,000 and the bonded indebtedness of $100,000.

—A movement has been begun at Birmingham, Ala., toward erecting a monument in memory of the Confederate dead.

—John G. Woods, son of Dr. John D. Woods, of Warren, has been appointed Superintendent of Mails at Louisville, with a $1,600 salary.

—Virginia now has the Australian ballot law, the governor having signed the bill. The election this fall will be held under that system.

—Miss Mallie Thompson gets the Lebanon post-office. Is pays $1,600 a year.

—It was certain that the Bland silver seigniorage bill would pass the Senate yesterday.

—The mayor of Redwood, B. C., was shot and fatally injured by the city clerk, who then killed himself.

—The total output of phosphate from Florida for the year 1893 was 424,457 tons, against 345,327 tons for 1892.

—The daily story of lawlessness in Oklahoma relates this time to the robbery of the Santa Fe depot at Woodward of $10,000.

—Buffalo is suffering from a terrible epidemic of typhoid fever, and the mayor has called an emergency meeting of the board of health.

—Walter Williams, the newspaper man who has organized a polar expedition, and three companions sailed from New York Wednesday.

—The Kentucky Union railroad was sold at Lexington and bought for $1,000,000 by J. Kennedy Tod & Co., representing $2,500,000 of the first mortgage bonds of the road.

—Associate Justice White was inducted into office Monday at noon, the full bench being present, except Justice Jackson, who is detained in the South by illness.

—Eight acres of boats, containing 38,055 tons of coal, left Louisville for points along the Ohio and Mississippi rivers Tuesday. It would have taken a train of cars 113 miles long to haul it.

—At Granville, O., the mayor was hanged in effigy before the Baptist church Sunday. College students are suspected, as he has been active in prosecuting students for their pranks.

—Lake navigation opened Monday. It is the earliest opening on record, the result of a wind storm which followed a long period of mild weather and drove the ice out of the Straits of Macinac.

—It is now said that Col. Breckinridge's plea will be that he made the promises of marriage to Miss Pollard under duress and after he had been secretly married to Mrs. Wing for some time.

—A bill granting to the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals the care and disposition of lost or strayed dogs and cats has been passed by the New York Legislature and become a law. It is the first legislation of this character in the United States.

—William Patrick, who was sued by the Misses Embury for $15,000 for saying they ran a disorderly house at Lexington, claimed to have made the statement on assurance of his daughter who has since been sent to the asylum, and the suit was withdrawn.

—A report made by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Senate shows the payment of sugar bounty from July 1 last to March 4 to aggregate $3,257,055. Of this $610,935 was paid on beet sugar; $16,926 on sorghum sugar; $2,513,597 on cane sugar and $115,597 on maple sugar.

—John Bennington, who was given four years at Lebanon for crushing old man White's skull during a drunken row, from the effects of which he died, has been pardoned by the governor. Bennington's wife went crazy over the act and the governor let him go home to take care of their four little children.

—The presence of Vice President Stevenson, Gov. Pattison and Hon. Wm. F. Harry, all visiting Asheville, N. C., at the same time, has started a report that it was a political conference, with the object of making Mr. Stevenson and Gov. Pattison the democratic leaders two years hence. An enthusiastic friend with a battery fired a presidential salute in honor of Mr. Stevenson.

—The smallest child ever heard of was born at Eaton, Conn., Thursday. The father, a wood-chopper, weighs 190 pounds, while the mother weighs 160. The child is perfectly formed except as to size. His weight is eight ounces and his face is about the size of a chestnut. A ring worn by the mother on her little finger was passed over the boy's foot and up to its knee. The doctors say he will live.

—The war at Rio Janerio has ended in the inglorious defeat of the insurgents. President Peixoto rejected the terms of capitulation proposed by Admiral Da Gama, demanded unconditional surrender and opened fire from all his forts. At the same time his wandering fleet screwed up courage to enter the harbor, and the rebels gave up. The rebel officers have taken refuge on board French and Portuguese warships.

—To the surprise of the Government, and against its opposition, the British House of Commons by a vote of 149 to 145 adopted Mr. Henry Labouchere's amendment to the reply to the Queen's speech, proposing the abolition of the House of Lords. The announcement of the vote was greeted by prolonged cheering. One swallow does not make a summer. No more does this resolution abolish the Lords. Revolution, not resolution, is the power that can unseat Britain's hereditary legislators.

LATER.—The body took it all back next day and endorsed the address of the Queen.

Card of Thanks.

(To the Editor of Interior Journal.)

Please allow me through your paper to express to my friends my sincere gratitude and thanks for their cordial and hearty support in the late democratic primary. While I would have greatly appreciated the nomination, still, being a democrat, I cheerfully yield to the will of the majority, and shall do all in my power to aid the whole ticket in November. Very truly,

SAM'L M. OWENS.

IT DIDN'T WORK.

The Man With a Bad Neck Tried a Doubtful Experiment.

I was about ready for bed the other night when I heard a great yelling in the back yard and ran out to discover that a terrible looking man had nearly sawed his head off on a wire clothesline stretched from fence to fence.

"I'll make you pay me damages for this," he shouted at me as I lifted him up and kindly asked after his moral and physical welfare.

"My friend, you are way off on your points of law," I replied without anger. "While the law may not allow spring guns, it does permit and encourage family clotheslines. You entered my premises of your own free will and with an object to me unknown. Had you been moving at a dignified and proper gait there would have been no calamity. I do not wish to be too inquisitive, but would you kindly state the nature of your errand here?"

"I was going to strike you fur a quarter, but when that dog next door began to bark, I—I—"

"You lost your nerve and made a rush. I follow you. My dear sir, you have met with a streak of good luck."

"I'll be hanged if I see it," he growled. "I've saved my old head almost off on that wire."

"Let me elucidate. Firstly, had you knocked on my door and routed me out at this unseasonable hour you would have got leather instead of cash and perhaps brought up in the police station. Secondly, previous to this windfall, wirefall or whatever you may term it you had no special reason for appealing to charity. Now you have. You can work your neck in this town for at least six weeks. Thirdly, instead of giving you the boot I hereby hand you a couple of dimes. You have every reason to congratulate yourself and not one single cause of complaint."

"Does my neck look purty bad?" he asked in gentler tones.

"Yes, pretty bad. The skin is cut from ear to ear."

"And would the sight of it appeal to your sympathies, for instance?"

"It would. Humanely speaking, it is my positive belief that the visible injury will soften the hearts of four men out of five, to say nothing of the sympathetic housewives."

He went away with a strange sort of gurgling in his throat, and I entered the house, congratulating myself that my philosophy was up to the average. I had just kicked off my shoes when the front doorbell rang, and I opened the door to find my back yard tramp standing before me.

"Boss," said he, "I've met with a bad accident, and being a poor man I am forced to appeal to charity. Look at my neck."

"Yes, it looks bad. Poor man, eh?"

"Yes, sir—poor, but honest. But for this accident I should not be forced to ask for assistance."

"The wound itself must be painful, and no doubt your throat is so sore that it is almost impossible to swallow?"

"That's it, sir. I haven't been able to swallow for three days and don't expect to for a week to come."

"That's both good and bad—good because being a poor man you won't have to eat anything for a week or so, and can therefore get along without outside help, and bad because I was going to invite you into the house to have a whisky sling and a bite of cold turkey. Did you want anything of me that you came and rang my doorbell?"

"Did I? Did I? You bet I did! I want to say right here and now that you are the meanest old cuss I've run across since old Samson had his hair cut, and you can put that in your pipe and smoke it."

But as I don't smoke I lost the benefit of at least half his heartfelt observation.—Detroit Free Press.

Had It With Her.

"Politeness is a good thing, but sometimes it's wearin'—rally," said Mr. Brown. "Seems so it almost borders on sarse to follow any one up so an pester 'em with kindness, as they do at these big hotels."

"What are you objecting about now?" asked Mrs. Brown.

"Well, I was only thinkin how them porters follow you up like a parcel of detectives. When I sot my foot in one of them hotels up to New York, a feller looked at me, jest as pryin, an says, 'Can't I carry up your baggage?' It seemed jest as though he knew all I had was my paper collar rolled up in the top of my hat. His manner was kind of twittin like, seems ef."

"Well, I said you oughter carried a change," began Mrs. Brown in her most corrective manner.

"Now, that ain't the point," said her husband. "I'm jest sayin I don't like to be spied on an follered up. I got the best of 'em once though."

"When I got on one of them ferry-boats, a little chap in brass buttons come up an asked me if my baggage was aboard. I said very dignified that it was right in front of him."

"Whereabouts?" he up an asks.

"Well, I'm standin right in the middle of it—namely, my clo's," says I. And that settled him.—Youth Companion.

Ready to Learn.

Justice (severely)—How could you, sir, be so mean as to swindle people that put confidence in you?

Prisoner—Well, judge, I'll make it worth something to yer if you'll tell me how to work them as don't.—Life.
